the purpose of this book is to describe the rules of due process as they are being applied today and as they have evolved over the years the book offers an intensive analysis of the more important issues of due process that arise in the quasi criminal context of infringement proceedings and in the somewhat less adversarial context of merger clearance proceedings throughout this unprecedented crisis which is hitting all major economies in the eu the escalation of the eurozone recession increasingly undermines public confidence in the ability of competitive markets to deliver positive outcomes a debate on the most appropriate way to enforce competition rules in light of the crisis is definitely useful a relaxed stance to competition during difficult periods may be tempting and indeed this has often been the approach used in the past however the enforcement of competition rules is no less important during times of crisis than during normal periods it has also been argued that when public resources are stretched to the limit and businesses are struggling to survive competition authorities should seek to focus their limited resources on those anticompetitive practices which are most detrimental to consumer welfare such as cartels indeed if over enforcement is perhaps undesirable when the economy is functioning well it will inevitably become more problematic during an economic downturn in addition business managers may be increasingly tempted to resort to anticompetitive practices when faced with economic hardship this book will appeal to judges and lawyers in competition law european law business corporate law and insolvency law the study of european competition law european institutions national competition authorities and companies written in an authoritative yet accessible style the book provides an ideal guide and reference for anyone facing a problem with an eu law component
